

Junior Division

General Rules & Regulations

1. All animals exhibiting in the Junior Division are subject to payment of regular entry fees at the time of filing entry.
2. All exhibitors must be enrolled in the project in which they are exhibiting. 4-H and FFA exhibits can exhibit only the animals which are part of their project. Feeding practices and keeping records of this work must be done under the supervision of County Extension Agents and Vo-Ag Instructors.
3. To be eligible to exhibit in the Junior Division, Junior exhibitors must be bonafide members of the 4-H or FFA club in the juniors state of residence. Junior exhibitors must be nine years of age but not more than nineteen years old as of December 31, 2016. Exhibitors are also eligible to participate through the calendar year that they graduate from high school.
4. Any person who violates any of the following or special rules will forfeit all privileges and winnings.
5. Junior exhibitors who wish to enter their animals in the open classes may do so upon payment of appropriate fees as apply to the open classes.
6. All livestock entered in the open classes will be released as specified in the schedule of events. Junior exhibitors must comply with all rules and regulations as applies to open classes. Failure to comply will bar an exhibitor from participating for awards, which may be awarded by the judge.
7. POSSESSION AND OWNERSHIP ELIGIBILITY: Exhibitors of animals in beef breeding classes are required to be in continuous possession and ownership from JULY 1, in the current year, and such animals must have been fed and fitted by the exhibitor from date of possession. Exception: Beef animals born after January 1 during the year of the Fair must be in possession by August 15, in the current year.

Registration papers must be available upon demand. Junior exhibitors shall be allowed to show only animal(s) recorded in his or her name — one name only — no dual ownership. Animals shall be entered in one name only and that name shall be the name of the Junior Exhibitor who owns and shows the animal and whose name is recorded on the registration certificate.
8. All beef breeding entries must be registered or recorded with their respective breed organization.
9. Junior exhibitors may show no more than two entries per class in any Division of the Junior Breeding Shows.
- 10. All contestants are to use their own animals in showmanship classes.
11. EACH EXHIBITOR MUST SHOW HIS OWN ANIMAL If not able to show his own animal by reason of sickness, temporary physical handicap or by reason of exhibiting more than one animal, then he must have a bona fide 4-H Club member or FFA member to show in his place; and the owner must show his own animal in all of the championship classes in which he is eligible to show, except due to illness or physical handicap or having more than one animal in the championship class. In this event, the person showing in the preliminaries must show in championship class.

12. If livestock owned by the 4-H and FFA members are shown in the open show the animal must be exhibited in the open show by the exhibitor or member of the immediate family (parent, legal guardians, brother, sister and grandparents). Exhibition of animal by anyone else will result in the animal being ineligible for competition.

13. If an exhibitor's animal is in violation of the Code of Ethics rules and regulations, in the opinion of the livestock show management, the exhibitor will forfeit all awards. Furthermore, the exhibitor will be barred from participation in show/exhibiting all livestock and/or poultry in a 4-H or FFA event or program for a period of one (1) year. Second violation — If an exhibitor or a family member (someone who legally reside in the same household and share the same address) has another violation of the Code of Ethics rules and regulations, the family will be barred from participation in show/exhibiting all livestock in the LBA shows/program for a period of three (3) years.
